

RSPA/OPS

Pipeline Communication

Public Meeting

Bellevue, Washington

January 29, 2003

Stacey Gerard

RSPA Associate Administrator for Pipeline Safety

- Welcome
- Acknowledgements
 - U. S. Congresswoman Jennifer Dunn
 - Washington Utilities & Transportation Commission
 - API Task Force on Recommended Practice 1162
 - Panel Members
 - Others That Helped Make Meeting Possible
 - Audience Members
- Video: Remarks from Congresswoman Dunn

Stacey Gerard

RSPA Associate Administrator for Pipeline Safety

- Logistics
 - Fire exits
 - Restrooms
 - Coffee
 - Lunch Places

Workshop Agenda

- 9:30 AM – Integrity Management Communications
- 11:30 AM – Lunch
- 1:00 PM – Performance Metrics
- 3:30 PM – Public Awareness Initiatives

Workshop Approach

- Presentations
- Panel Discussions
- Open Q&A

Workshop Purpose

- To Discuss OPS's Initiatives Regarding
 - Pipeline Integrity Management
 - Pipeline Safety Communications
 - Integrity Management Communications
 - Communications Regarding Pipeline Operator and Industry Performance Measures
 - OPS Public Awareness and Communication Initiatives

Understanding the Context

- Current Requirements
- Stakeholder Demand for Information
- Safety Enhanced Via Information
- Security Concerns Post 9/11
- How OPS is Responding to the Three Overarching Areas for Today's Workshop:
 - Integrity Management
 - Performance Metrics
 - Public Awareness Initiatives

Communications Puzzle